

Alexander Barnes was raised in San Francisco's Bay Area, California, in the heart of the Silicon Valley. He has graduated university with a PhD in Linguistic Anthropology, and now resides along France's coastline in the small town of Etretat. He is very active not only in his community, but globally, as he is constantly on call with work. Finding time in the day, though, he will never miss an opportunity to grab his camera and explore. A winner in multiple multi-national photography competitions, he has had features in many popular magazines with his witty narratives and beautiful interpretations of life and nature.

"I felt as if it were me in the action! This young and aspiring author is bound to bring us more delight in the future..."

- Amberie Latourelle-Châtois,

"My lungs ceased to function. It was exhilarating."

- Gareth Rhys, The Welsh Times

"Now I finally know what it feels like to live a day in the shoes of someone truly captivating."

- Gustas Mørk, The Norway Dailymm

A short novel by...

Alexander Barnes

Stamps & Argyle Publishing Co.
15378 Arrington Drive, West
Minster