

Story Overview:

1. The host welcomes all the contestants and explains the rules to them
2. Contestants line up in a line in front of our bachelorette
3. They all say a pick up line to her and she either says yes or no to them
4. If she says yes they move to the right and move on to the next round, and if she says no they move to the left and are eliminated.
5. After each yes or no she will explain her reason in a room off screen where the contestants can't hear her
6. The guys will also be able to give their thoughts on the situation about why she said yes or no
7. The bachelorette friends will be able to see all the constants and they will be able to react to all her yes and no's.
8. After all the contestants have gone and our bachelorette has chosen her picks they will go on a 2 minute date
9. On this 2 minute date they will be talking to each other and see if they are the right match
10. Our bachelorette will have her friends in her ear giving her advice and their thoughts on the date.
11. She will also be able to comment on the date off screen to explain what she is thinking about

12. The guys will also get a chance to express their feelings about how the date is going off screen
13. After all the dates have ended our bachelorette will choose her match and they will live happily ever after(hopefully)
