Act 1:

- The contestants all walk into the room and are introduced to the show by our host which is Isaac
 - We chose Issac because of his naturally funny personality and how he acts in everyday life and we think that it will bring more comedy into our show
- This will most likely take 30-60 seconds because the introduction will be brief and will probably do a pan of all the contestants' faces
- Our bachelorette will introduce herself and explain her life story.
- This will also take around 45 seconds.
 - We cast our bachelorette because of her sassy and very truthful personality. This means she will be very blunt with the contestants creating comedy because of it.
- After the bachelorette introduces herself and the show is introduced the guys will line up in line and start saying their pickup lines to her
 - We will have a nerd with a heavy accent because we expect a funny interaction between him and our bachelorette
 - We will also have multiple typical jokes that will be super confident in their looks and will set up our bachelorette to make fun of them.
- This will probably take at least 3-4 minutes
- We will have behind-the-scenes interviews about our bachelorette and the guys talking about their experience in the speed dating
- Each interview will take 30-45 seconds and only a select few guys will get the interview.
- At the end of the act, she will choose around 5-7 guys that she likes the best and the other guys will be eliminated

Act 2:

- After the guys have been picked by our bachelorette, we will have to test their brains.
- The teams will be picked by a random generator so the guys can't team up or cheat
- They will divide into two teams and will battle it out to see which team is the smartest

- They will be asked trivia questions to test their brain and show that they are not just good-looking but also smart
- Our host Isaac will be asking them questions and each team will battle out to see who first reaches 3 correct answer questions
- They will have 15 seconds to answer each question
- They will also be switching after every question so each guy gets to answer a question
 - This will most likely take at least 3-4 minutes to shoot because we need to get the guys to answer the question and their reaction shots.
- After the team reaches the 3 questions they will be awarded the winners and the 3 guys that won will go on a date with our bachelorette.

Act 3:

- All the contestants that have been chosen by our bachelorette will move on to the next round
- In the next game, they will go on 2-minute dates where they will get to spend one-on-one time with our bachelorette.
- In these dates, we will probably only take the set bits from each date which should be 30-45 seconds of footage per date.
 - We hope that on these dates our bachelorette digs into her sassy and brutally honest personal;y which makes these dates funnier
 - We also hope that the cast uses their unique personalities of nerdiness and goofiness to make it even funnier.
- While this is happening we will have her friends watch the date and give their feedback on it
 - We cast her friends to be brutally honest and sassy with no filter. We hope that this no-filter adds even more comedy to our show.
 - These cuts back between the dates should only take 20-30 seconds.
- After all the dates have finished the bachelorette will get to meet with her friends to discuss their opinions about the dates and the guys.

- Ultimately, the guys will all line up and the bachelorette will choose her favorite guy who wins the show.
- This ending will probably take around 2 minutes with her discussing with her friends along with the suspense of the choosing of the guy.
