

Questions:

Subject: Antonio Murillo

1. What is your name?
2. What is your job?
3. What is an explanation of the life advice you give to the class? Basically what is this thing you do from your perspective?
4. Could you tell a specific story of a specific time you gave life advice to the class?
5. What do you think about the class's reaction to the Advice?
6. Why do this extra thing of giving advice rather than just teaching the material? Any stories from your past as to why?
7. Do you have any past history of giving advice?
8. How do you think this act of giving advice to students will help them? Or what do you hope to give/change?
9. Any important details when growing up in rural Mexico which connect to the Advice or Reasons for giving the Advice?
10. Any objects which could symbolize any of the concepts brought up so far?