

Part 1 – The Humorist Analysis and Reflection (2 pages, single-spaced)

Overview:

The purpose of your Humorist Study is to show that you have found inspirations and models for the kind of Humor Project you want to create. Your analysis of your chosen humorists and your reflection on what you find useful/inspirational about them will serve as the foundation for your project proposal.

Kurt Vonnegut, an American writer and humorist. He was also a prisoner of war, the reason why I chose him is because of his work. One of his works Slaughterhouse-Five (an anti-war book), I read in class. He wrote the book based on what he experienced in WWII, the bombing of Dresden in Germany. He first started by narrating everything (people, places) about his time in Dresden and how his work is gonna be related to it. He uses his humor techniques to write the book. He uses Billy Pilgrim as his character, Tralfamadore; his hallucinations are a way of him telling traumatic effects(a device way of communicating).

Humor techniques

- Anecdotes(he used it as the welcoming party)
- Caricature
- WiseCrack
- Situational irony
- Triviality
- Callback

- Blue humor
- Wit
- Romantic irony
- Defusing Anxiety
- Exaggerism
- Farce

Kurt Vonnegurt used those humor techniques to write his book, which made the readers understand.

(If you have a group, can you assure me that everyone is invested in this idea and you won't have trouble getting everyone to contribute meaningfully?) What makes you excited about this idea? What are some potential pitfalls you wish to avoid?

It is right because it is based on a true story and we saw and experienced it ourselves. Yes everyone contributed and we rewrote the lyrics ourselves.
