Garnora is an earthly planet full of people with magical powers. 6000 years ago the planet was founded by a man and a woman known as the first ancestors of Garnora (Sabina Atu, Mundai Fai, of the Hilaria clan). They both were of the same race, the place was strange and there were different kinds of things happening around them. They didn't know who they were or how come they exist or why they were there. 5 years passed by and four other people in pairs appeared to be different from each other, they had different skin color, hair, and height. The Clem clan have access to dark magical powers, in addition to pure ones. The Minli clan has the power to summon lightning and storms. The Hilaria people are divided into three clans: Mage, Spellbinder, and Mind Readers. The Linga clan has to create illusions. All of the people in Garnorian help each other. 50 years have passed by and the population has grown more and more. Some people moved to the south, east, west and north, some because of their skin and the weather so they went to places where the weather didn't affect their skin tones. Garnora was now divided into four regions: Hilaria, Lina, Minli and Clem.

Act 1: At Garnora Magic School, during class period Kiri tells the story about Mazgat to Sabina. Sabina goes home and tells her grandma about it, but finds out that her grandma knows about the story. Her grandma tells her a secret, they had an agreement which causes her to feel betrayed and leave home.

Act 2: Sabina goes to her friend Lita's house, where the news of people losing their lives and power reaches her. She can only think about one reason as to why that's happening, so she goes back to her grandma's house.

Act 3: Things get really tense in Garnora. Sabina leaves to go and get the magic book in Minli but she has to go alone because only she can enter the cave. Sabina gets the book and returns to Hilaria, she finds out that her grandma dies and now she 5000 years ago in Hilaria, Mazgath was born. He is of an ancient race of people with mind reading powers. His ancestors used to tell what was on others' minds or if something happened and someone was lying they would tell if that individual was telling a lie or not. As society began to isolate them over the years, they found solutions by creating a magical bracelet. Mazgath wasn't happy with that decision that their society made them choose. As he grew older he became anxious about his power to read people's minds because he wanted something he could control. Soon he started finding ways about how he could be more powerful than everyone in Garnor. He started practicing evil magic from the Clem race magic book, and after years of practicing others' magic he made himself into a monster. He started taking people and draining them until they were dead. That's when the elders of four regions came together to stop him by combining their power together to contain him, however they knew the barriers wouldn't last for eternity. They created a potion which they later said they lost, so Garnorians should always stand ready for Mazgath's breakthrough.

ACT ONE :

Sabina is a 21 years old girl who goes to Garnora high School of magic, the school is a big school with different students from each school. As always, she wakes up in the morning and does her morning routines and heads for school. On her way to school, she goes to her friend Lita's house so that they can go together as usual. They arrive at school, do the morning assembly, and head to class. The class is full of students aged between 20- 21 years, has magic books, spellbinder portions, controlling lighting and storm books around the class room for the students .Every student has their own desk and materials on it and their partners. Sabina is partnered up with Lita . Kiri enters the classroom, and the classroom becomes quiet . And starts the lesson for the day, the lesson was about Mazgath it was time for them to now since they are now in their 20s. As Kiri tells the story, Sabina imagines how it happened in her mind, and as soon as Kiri finishes with the storytelling she raises her hand up in the air to ask a question.

“So what you’re trying to say is that Mazgath can be free at any time from now on?” says Sabina.

“Yes, but we can stop that from happening before he does, let’s have hope,” replies Kiri, looking at the spell book in his hands after he finishes telling the story.

Sabina goes home after school at the Hiliria school of magic. She goes to her room and lies on her wooden bed made out of a timber tree. She started thinking about what Kiri had said earlier this morning. She gets up and goes to the kitchen where her grandma is cooking cassava leaf sauce for their dinner meal. She explained everything about what Kiri said to them at school. Her grandma only stares at her, and she is surprised to see that her grandma knows about it and for the fact she hides it from her until she hears the story from someone else.

“ I have to tell you something about Sabina,” her grandma says. It’s about the portion about Mazgath , the portion was made for anyone who happens not to be born with powers , our ancestors knew that something like this will happen that’s why they said that the portion was stolen .The potion was made for anyone who happens not to be born with magic, her ancestors knew something like this was gonna happen. So the potion was used on you , since you happened to be that someone. We had to keep it a secret from you, only a few people know about you.

“ So when were you going to tell me about it ?” she asks with tears in her eyes, but her grandma only looks away without looking at her . She knows the answer to her question , so Sabina leaves her house in despair .

ACT TWO

Few days passed by and Sabina didn’t go home because of things her grandma told her, about the potion, that they didn’t lose it. she happens to be that someone. She was staying at Lita’s house with her best friend in Miota when the news about people losing their power spread all over Garnora. Garnorians are now scared of what might happen to them, now that the barrier is almost done breaking from the spell. The fact that it can be any one of them makes them more anxious about their lives.

Sabina went back home. "It's better to die in your own house than you at someone else's house," She tells her grandma as she walks in the house.

Over the next few days, the elders of the four regions were figuring out how to protect their own region for the time being from Mazgath's massacre. The elders gathered in Hilaria to come up with an idea to stop Mazgath, when Sabina heard about it she went there and said "I have what it takes to bring Mazgath down, the magic potion I have in me".

News of Sabina being the one to destroy Mazgath spreads throughout Garnora, the people's hopes lie in her now. She has to go to northern Minli to bring the magic book so that she can do the spell that will make the potion in her body work, but she has to go alone. The magic force in that environment alone is too much for ordinary people to handle. She took off for Minli from Southwest Hilaria with her horse, she passed towns, mountains and rivers while on her way. Every town she reaches, there are people welcoming and wishing her good luck on her journey.

She reaches Northern Minli and heads for the Cave where the magic book was at, the book was in the center of the cave. She couldn't touch or reach it, she spent days there trying to figure out how to take the magic book with her. She tries chanting spells and doing charms. She almost gives up but remembers the people she saw on her way there, the fear and hope in their eyes as she passed by. She removes her bracelet and cuts her wrist and then sprinkles the blood on a shining book, the book falling down from floating in the air and she takes it.

On her way back the climate is now darker than before, That's when it occurs to her that Mazgath is finally free from the barrier and spell and she is not even closer to Hilaria. She chants spells as she rides her horse, she chants carefully even though she is in a hurry or else one single mistake can turn back time.

ACT III

Two days pass and she finally reaches Hilaria. "Mazgath got out the day you left for Minli, your grandma tried holding him back but the spell was too much for her to handle, she is dead sorry," says Lita. She gets angry and starts to chant the spells in the magic book, at first it does not work, then she tries again and again nothing happens because she is not concentrating, she has a lot going on in her head, but pretends to be fine. Her heart begins to beat faster, soon it is hard for her to catch up on her breathing cycle, then she falls down on the floor and loses consciousness. Her grandma's death puts her in a heartbreaking situation, while she is still unconscious, other Mages, Spellbinders and Illusionists agree to make a spell that will make see her grandma one last time before she wakes up, they know that she is in denial about accepting the truth . They don't have time to waste, the process finishes and they cast the spell on her.

In her subconscious she sees her grandma and starts to cry she feels sorry for arguing with her last time, she talks alot about what happening to her in real life, and wishes that her grandma was with her. After she finishes what with she has to say, she looks around her and sees many other people, some people look totally different on their skin tones. "Those with the fawntone are victims of Mazgath, when he drains their magic their skin tone changes, most of the victims were children. You have to wake up and save your people from him, Bina" her grandma says. As soon as she wakes up she becomes a different person, she isn't even sad anymore, her determination now is to put herself together.

They bind all the spells together, and now Sabina has all four of the magic in Garnora. There is only one thing left now, which is for her to face the evil itself. But how is she going to do that? Mazgath is not easily deceived. She comes up with a plan to lay a bait for him, the plan is to lead him to Sewaii river, where she can use the water to cast a barrier with only the two of them in it, so that others will not be in danger. "When you see him do not let him transform!, aim for the staff if he transforms it will not be easy to destroy him. Remember he is evil and powerful just like you, also be careful" Says Kiri.

Mazgath falls for the bait and they both are now stuck in the barrier. They start to fight each other, Sabina's aggression gets over her and forgets about the staff. Mazgath transforms and the barrier falls down. Mazgath holds Sabina's neck and starts to choke her, in order for him to let go of her she creates vision duplicates of herself. Mazgath gets confused; he thinks that the one he was choking was not the real Sabina, he lets go of her and starts to go after the duplicates. Every duplicate he touches vanishes in the air "poof!", while Sabina fights him by sending him strokes of lighting in different directions. He finds her by mentioning her grandma's death, Bina gets tricked by it and shows her real self again.

" I know what's going on in your mind, you want to rule everyone but that's not going to happen not on my clock, not in this life" Says Sabina to Mazgath. When he tries to think about a way to attack Sabina , she finds out because she can hear everything in his mind. Things happen like that for a while, when he finally knows that her power is way too much than his, he casts a spell of noise. The spell prevents others from reading minds, and he transforms back to his normal self . His plan is to kill Sabina by saying sugar coating words so that sabina falls for his act. Sabina pretends to fall for it, when he points the staff on her nothing happens. Sabina combines all of her skills together , aims for the staff one last time, the staff breaks into two halves . While Magazth tries to put them
